"A man that beareth false witness against his neighbour is a maul, and a sword, and a sharp arrow."

"He that passeth by, and meddleth with strife belonging not to him, is like one that taketh a dog by the ears."

"As a mad man who casteth firebrands, arrows, and death, So is the man that deceiveth his neighbour, and saith, Am not I in sport?"

"The words of a talebearer are as wounds, and they go down into the innermost parts of the belly."

"Let another man praise thee, and not thine own mouth; a stranger, and not thine own lips."

"Iron sharpeneth iron; so a man sharpeneth the countenance of his friend."
